Risk and Reward Profile

This indicator is a measure of a Fund's volatility over the past five years. The higher a Fund's past volatility the higher the number on the scale and the greater the risk that investors in that Fund may have made losses as well as gains. The lowest number on the scale does not mean that a Fund is risk free. The Company has been classed as a Category 5 as this category best describes the volatility level of the Company. Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.

The market prices of Indian securities can move sharply on relatively small trading volumes. It also reflects that the Fund is not only exposed to market price movements, but also to the value of the Indian Rupee relative to the share class currency. The Fund's policy is not to hedge Rupee exposure.

The risk and reward profile of the Fund shown is not guaranteed to remain the same and may shift over time. This means the Fund is not guaranteed to always stay in the same category. The Fund has a High risk rating because it invests in a portfolio of equities of an Indian company. Accordingly, an investor may not get back the full amount invested and an investment should only be made by persons who can sustain a loss on their investment.

The Fund is also subject to risks which are not included in the calculation of the risk-reward indicator associated with the following:

Capital Raising Constraints under Indian Law - FPIs are generally permitted to invest in Government bonds and corporate bonds without the prior approval of the RBI or the SEBI. However, the total outstanding investments in Government bonds and in corporate bonds cannot exceed the Debt Limits as prescribed by SEBI and RBI. Further, there are separate limits available for investing in Government securities and corporate bonds. The non-availability of such limits may pose a risk to the Company of not being able to invest in local currency bonds and will affect the portfolio construction of the Company.

Market Risk - The market price of investments owned by the Fund may go up or down, sometimes unpredictably. The value of an investment may decline due to general market conditions, such as real or perceived adverse economic conditions or general adverse investment sentiment. Investments may also decline in value due to factors which affect a particular market sector.

Liquidity Risk - Liquidity may be essential to a Fund's performance. Under certain market conditions, such as during volatile markets or when trading in Financial Instruments or market is otherwise impaired, the liquidity of a Fund's portfolio positions may be reduced. During such times, a Fund may be unable to dispose of certain Financial Instruments, which would adversely affect the Fund's ability to rebalance its portfolio or to meet redemption requests.

Indian Economic Factors - The success of the Fund's investments depends in part on general economic and business conditions in India. A significant change in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India generally and in particular if new restrictions on the private sector are introduced or if existing restrictions are not relaxed over time.

Currency Exchange Rate Risks - Assets of a Fund may be denominated in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund and changes in the exchange rate between the Base Currency and the currency of the asset may lead to a depreciation of the value of the Fund's assets as expressed in the Base Currency. A Class of Shares of a Fund may be designated in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund. Changes in the exchange rate between the Base Currency and such designated currency may lead to a depreciation of the value of such Shares as expressed in the designated currency.

Loss of FPI Registration - For accessing the Indian securities market, the Fund will need to be registered as an FPI under the FPI Regulations. The investment by the Fund is dependent on the continued registration of the Fund as an FPI. In the event such registration as an FPI is terminated or is not renewed, the Fund could potentially be forced to redeem the investments held in the particular share class, and such forced redemption could adversely affect the returns to the Shareholders.
