Commodities and Inflation

NYMEX Crude Oil prices rose by ~5.1% from the previous month levels, ending at 60.14 per barrel; the prices were lower by ~7.4% yoy. LME closed at 3056.7 marginally lower over the previous month (lower by ~4.6% yoy). Gold prices closed at USD 1291.48/oz 2.5% lower from the previous month level (lower by ~2.7% yoy). The USD Index rose by ~1.17% vs. other currencies over the month; over the year the USD Index was higher by ~8.1%. February CPI came in at 2.57% v/s the lower revised 1.97% for January 2019. While headline remains closer to lower band of RBI's targeted 4% +/-2%, February print sketched some reversal in the extremely muted price momentum seen since November 2018. Global oil prices have moved up since January 2019 and have been passed on in retail fuel prices. Food index that has remained extremely benign (supported by seasonally lower vegetable prices) marked first increase in the last 6 months. Core inflation marked a 12 month low at 5.3% (compared to 5.36% in January) driven by favorable base effects. Apr-Feb core inflation and headline CPI have averaged 5.88% & 3.48% respectively

Markets & Real Economy

January IIP at 1.7% (v/s 2.6% in December) marked a tepid uptick in seasonally adjusted activity and was pulled down by an adverse base effect. FY19 IIP stands at 4.4% v/s 4.1% seen in Apr-Feb FY18. Mining, Manufacturing and Electricity grew 3.9%, 1.3% and 0.8% respectively. Primary goods (1.4%) positively contributed to headline IIP while Capital goods (-3.2%) marked a seasonally adjusted decline. Intermediate goods (-3%) marked a third consecutive decline hinting at slowdown of production ahead. Infrastructure goods (7.9%) remained strong, Consumer durables (1.8%) remained marginally positive while Non-durables (3.8%) were slightly below December levels.

As per the latest RBI data, Foreign exchange reserves position improved to USD 406.67 Bn over the month. The Rupee appreciated by ~2.6% over the month closing at 69.2725 Rs/USD vs. 71.1025 Rs/USD last month.

Sector-wise Performance

Key outperforming sector during the month was Financials. Indian economy has been persistently witnessing low inflation for past few months which has driven expectations of another rate cut in the upcoming monetary policy, which in turn is positive for the growth of the economy. Also, RBI is taking steps to inject liquidity in the banking system through Dollar – swap auction which shall in turn increase the financial system's ability to provide growth capital. We remain positive on the sector given significant under-penetration of financial services in India and significant growth potential over the long term. Within the sector, we have always stressed on our preference for private sector banks in the portfolio and will continue to avoid investing in public sector banks going forward as well.

Key underperforming sector during the month was Information Technology. INR has appreciated over the month primarily due to the buoyancy witnessed in FII inflows. Stronger INR will have impact on realizations and profitability. However, on the business front, Indian IT companies have witnessed improved order bookings that provide some revenue visibility for CY19/FY20 (better revenue exit momentum in CY18 entering into CY19 than for the preceding year). Also, as digital gathers scale (with 25-30% of revenues classified as digital growing 30%+ p.a. for the industry), there is a beneficial impact on margins. Digital, executed well at scale, logically fetches higher gross margins than the traditional business. We believe there are multiple growth drivers in place for Indian IT companies and continue to remain positive on the sector.

IPCA Laboratories – It is an integrated pharmaceutical company with presence in both generics as well as APIs, supplying to US, Europe, Africa & Rest of the world markets in addition to India. The company has delivered above industry growth in the domestic market. The company's international business suffered as its plant got import alert by the US FDA. However, the company has completed the remediation process and is awaiting inspection. Resumption of supplies to international markets, especially US and Africa shall help company generate significant revenue growth and margin improvement driving healthy earnings growth. We have a positive long term outlook on the company

Motherson Sumi systems Ltd. – The company is a frontline auto components supplier to global passenger vehicle manufacturers especially in Europe. Its key products include wiring harnesses, rear view mirrors and plastic components. The company is a technology leader and derives its strength from healthy long term customer relationships, product innovation and successful track record of building technological capabilities through acquisitions. The stock has remained under pressure due to slowdown in global auto sales, impact of regulatory changes and overhang on global trade. However, we remain confident of the company's ability to bounce back on the growth path once these issues subside. The company is gradually diversifying across geographies by increasing presence in the US and China market as well as customer segments like commercial vehicles. The stock is trading at attractive valuations and we maintain our positive outlook

Market Outlook

Market has rallied on the back of improving prospects of the incumbent government getting another term of 5 years, a pause in the rate hikes by US Fed to improve the global liquidity and easing of US-China trade tensions. We are already witnessing a pick-up in growth as visible in credit off-take and corporate earnings over the last 4-5 quarters and expect the momentum to pick-up significantly over the next 2-3 years driven by a broad-based recovery, positive effect of operating leverage and low interest rates. In our opinion, pick-up in earnings growth supported by favourable macros will drive the equity market going ahead. We continue to remain positive on India's long term growth potential.
